It might be spring and Easter is just a couple days away, but northern Utah has decided to switch back to winter for a bit. Which is GREAT by me because I love bad weather! I would much rather wear a cozy hoodie and watch snow fall than sweat to death. I do love working in my yard, but for now I will cherish every snowflake left to fall.

This email includes lots of things happening (some wackiness you can feel free to leap over), plus things coming soon. To make it quick and easy for you here is a list of what you will find:

- \$2 Tuesdays - there is a big variety of patterns from 7 different designers, including my "Chomper Tote". The sale ends tonight.
- Current sales
- Midlife Marge and Wiggled Out Wilma
- Coming Soon - sneak peaks (without the peeks) for newsletter peeps
- Seasonally Snappy 2024
- Latest from the blog - freebies
- Favorite "things"

Free Pattern: Making Memories Hat

About the pattern: this is designed to be worn in a few different ways. It can be worn as a cowl with the drawstring untied, as a messy bun beanie with the top left a little open for hair to be pulled through, or as a beanie with the drawstring pulled closed and tied. The ...

Free Pattern: Making Memories Scarf

This past winter, while reading about the different activities people were doing, I got the idea of making a scarf that could be worn from fall through early spring (in northern Utah and other areas with a cold season). I hope you will enjoy making this scarf, as well as wearing it while making memories ...

Free Pattern: Dish Soap Friends

Dishcloths, wash cloths, and kitchen sets are some of my favorite projects to work on, especially on road trips. I think part of it is because my mom always had a little project bag with a big spool of cotton yarn and a hook in the car. I am always trying to create different cloths. ...

Currently Loving

Every once in awhile I come across something that makes life easier... or at least makes me smile. Usually this is after many attempts at trying to find just the right thing.

Here are some things from this past week you might like too:

Favorite Home Use - This fan is small and super portable and I use it every night while I sleep; THIS CLEANER - it is wonderful, works really really well, and is CHEAP (I have the paste version too).

Favorite Crochet Supply- I was always looking for yarn needles so I gave these a try and it has been so nice! good quality and 50 for under $8!

Favorite gift idea: Little night light/lamps - I have now given a lying goose, 3 sharks, and a cat which my grand daughter takes with her in the car too)

Favorite Planner Supplies: Bloom Planner (I think I have finally found planner peace here);

...and in case you are like us and are always looking for something to watch... here are some of my recent favorite Shows:

Irish Wish (new movie on Netflix... a little "sweet" and predictable but nice for light happiness)

American Idol (MUCH more positive than when I used to watch it years ago);
The Voice (although I miss Blake so much).

Monk (LOVE this older series on Peacock)

"Heart and Souls" (after much searching we found it was only available on DVD)
